Featured index

STOXX has introduced the STOXX® Global Space Satellites and Drones index, which targets a strategic theme amid increasing demand for, and commercialization of, global connectivity, navigation, Earth observation and AI powered analytics. The index underlies the iShares Space Technologies UCITS ETF (STAR) from BlackRock since June 9, 2026.

Shares related to space technologies have performed strongly in recent months as investors weigh the possibilities the companies open for industries ranging from transportation to agriculture, defense and digital services. The STOXX Global Space Satellites and Drones index has risen 101% since the start of 2025, outperforming the STOXX® World AC Universal All Cap benchmark by 65 percentage points.<sup>1</sup>

The use of drones has expanded well beyond defense into sectors such as agriculture, energy and logistics. Satellites underpin global communications and navigation and have increasingly been deployed to deliver commercial broadband services. Space is also attracting interest from AI infrastructure developers, as its natural cooling conditions and continuous access to solar energy could make it an attractive environment for future data centers.

The STOXX Global Space Satellites and Drones index is derived from the STOXX World AC Universal All Cap. All eligible securities must pass Controversial Weapons and Norms-based screening. From there, companies are screened based on their RBICS<sup>2</sup> revenue exposure to the targeted themes and their relationship with space agencies, leading private aerospace companies and “pure players” in the Space and Missile Equipment Manufacturing RBICS sector.

Since June 29, the index includes Space Exploration Technologies Corp. (SpaceX), whose initial public offering of shares last month became the largest in history.

Benchmark indices

Key points

Global stock indices slipped in June as investors weighed the implications of the conflict in Iran and the trajectory of corporate earnings, yet still recorded their best quarterly performance since 2020.

The STOXX® Global 1800 index fell 0.6% last month in US dollars and including dividends. It rose 1.5% in euros as the common currency weakened 2% against the greenback. The benchmark gained 13.9% over the quarter in dollars, the best quarterly performance since the last quarter of 2020.

The EURO STOXX 50® jumped 4.7% in euros, while the pan-European STOXX® Europe 600 advanced 2.7%. Both indices closed June at a record high on a price level and posted their strongest quarter since 2020 on a gross-return basis.

The STOXX® North America 600 and STOXX® USA 500 fell 0.7% in dollars over June. The STOXX® Asia/Pacific 600 declined 1.8% in dollars.

World Equity indices

Key points

The STOXX® World AC Universal fell 0.9% last month when measured in dollars and including dividends, for a second-quarter advance of 15.1% — its strongest performance since the second quarter of 2020. The STOXX® Developed World Universal shed 0.8% in the month. The STOXX® Emerging Markets Universal declined 1.4% but climbed 23.9% over the quarter, its best calendar quarter since the three months ending June 2009.

The STOXX® World Equity indices are a modular suite that allows investors to flexibly build portfolios across a broad and liquid universe of markets in STOXX's largest coverage of securities to date. With turnover and market-capitalization filters in the stock selection to ensure they are tradable and representative, the indices track the performance of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks from a full range of developed and emerging markets, as well as derived sector strategies.

There are two defining features of the STOXX World Equity indices: their exhaustive scope and their modularity. They can be used as the basis to create highly targeted solutions in the three focus areas of sustainability, factors and thematic.

DAX indices

Key points

Germany's DAX family is led by DAX®, the blue-chip benchmark. MDAX® and SDAX® gauge, respectively, the performance of the country's mid- and small-caps. TecDAX® tracks German technology companies. HDAX® groups all equities that belong to either DAX, MDAX or TecDAX.

The DAX® All Cap, DAX® LargeMid Cap and DAX® MidSmall Cap offer investors one-stop exposure to composite large-, mid- and small-capitalization segments of stocks.

All indices in the suite had negative returns last month, led by TecDAX. The DAX benchmark jumped 10.2% in the second quarter.

ESG-X indices

Key points

The STOXX® Global 1800 ESG-X fell 0.4% in June, beating its benchmark.

The STOXX ESG-X indices are versions of traditional, market capitalization-weighted benchmarks that observe standard responsible exclusions. They incorporate basic norm- and product-based exclusion criteria to comply with ESG principles. Companies are excluded based on ISS Sustainability's determination of non-compliance with their Global Standards Screening assessment or if they have a 'severe' ESG risk rating from the data provider. Companies involved in controversial weapons, small arms, military contracting, unconventional oil and gas, tobacco, thermal coal (extraction or use for power generation), civilian firearms and military contracting are also removed.

Index and volatility levels

ESG and Sustainability indices

Key points

Among the STOXX ESG and Sustainability indices, the EURO STOXX 50® ESG index outperformed its benchmark by 14 basis points last month. The index applies sustainability exclusionary screens and replaces companies with the lowest ESG scores with higher-rated constituents from the same sector.

The STOXX® Global ESG Select KPIs index, meanwhile, beat the STOXX Global 1800 by 132 basis points in June. The STOXX ESG Select KPIs indices offer a broad market exposure that is tilted towards companies that score better with respect to a small set of environmental, social and governance key performance indicators.

Climate indices – CTBs

Key points

The STOXX® Global 1800 CTB slipped 0.4% last month, slightly outperforming its benchmark.

The STOXX CTB \(Climate Transition Benchmark\) indices are based on liquid securities from a selection of STOXX Benchmark indices and follow the EU Climate Transition Benchmark \(EU CTB\) requirements outlined by the European Commission's Regulation (EU) 2020/1818, supplementing Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council on climate benchmarks. Those requirements are designed such that the resulting CTB portfolio is on a decarbonization trajectory.

STOXX has partnered with ISS Sustainability for datasets relating to their Global Standards Screening and controversial weapons, climate-related data such as Scope 1-3 emissions, science-based climate targets and others.

Climate Indices – PABs

Key points

The STOXX® Global 1800 PAB also fell 0.4% last month, outperforming its benchmark.

The STOXX PAB \(Paris-Aligned Benchmark\) indices \(PABs\) are based on liquid securities from a selection of STOXX Benchmark indices and follow the EU Paris-aligned Benchmark \(EU PAB\) requirements outlined by the European Commission's Regulation (EU) 2020/1818, supplementing Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council on climate benchmarks.

Those requirements are designed such that the resulting PAB portfolio's greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions are aligned with the long-term global warming target of the Paris Climate Agreement. The indices incorporate stringent carbon limitations in the selection of holdings, in line with global commitments to work towards keeping global warming between 1.5°C and 2°C above pre-industrial levels.

As with the CTB indices, STOXX has partnered with ISS Sustainability for exclusions datasets, climate-related data, science-based climate targets and others.

CTB Fixed Income indices

Key points

The STOXX CTB Fixed Income indices rose on a total-return basis last month. The indices are based on respective ICE BofA Fixed Income indices, and are a collaboration between STOXX as index administrator and ICE as calculation and dissemination agent, with data from ISS Sustainability. They are constructed to follow the EU CTB requirements as described in the Climate Indices section.

The indices exclude companies based on global norms, controversial weapons involvement and tobacco production.

Index construction follows an optimization process that uses the Axioma Portfolio Optimizer software. The indices overweight companies with approved, committed and ambitious carbon reduction targets under the Science Based Targets Initiative (SBTi) and target minimum 'green-to-brown' revenue ratio. The indices are optimized to reduce the turnover to track the performance of the parent indices.

PAB Fixed Income indices

Key points

The STOXX PAB Fixed Income indices also advanced in June on a total-return basis.

The indices are also based on respective ICE BofA Fixed Income indices and draw from ICE pricing and calculation services. They are constructed to follow the EU PAB requirements as described in the Climate Indices section, and exclude companies based on global norms, product involvement and activities that hinder certain United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Biodiversity indices

Key points

The ISS STOXX® Developed World Biodiversity slipped 1% last month. The ISS STOXX® Biodiversity indices allow investors to take a comprehensive approach to the challenges, risks and opportunities from the degradation of our natural ecosystems and growing efforts to protect them.

The indices exclude companies involved in activities that are controversial or cause harm to biodiversity, select securities with less negative impact on ecosystems and those contributing positively to relevant UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). They also reduce the portfolio's carbon emissions.

A key component of the ISS STOXX Biodiversity framework is the Potentially Disappeared Fraction of Species (PDF), an output of ISS Sustainability's Biodiversity Impact Assessment Tool. PDF seeks to measure how corporates affect our natural world by considering a set of environmental pressures on species and habitats across the entire value chain and different geographical locations.

Thematic indices

Key points

The STOXX Thematic indices seek exposure to the long-term economic upside of disruptive global megatrends covering the environment, future technology and socio-demographics.

Only 18 of the 49 Thematic indices featured in this newsletter outperformed the STOXX Global 1800 last month.

The STOXX® Global Breakthrough Healthcare index (+6.9%) led returns in the suite last month, while the STOXX® Global Solar Energy index (-17.2%) was the laggard.

Factor indices

Key points

The STOXX Ax Factor indices offer robust factor definitions and targeted factor exposures, and ensure the tradability of component stocks. They employ the institutionally tested analytics of Axioma Factor Risk Models.

The STOXX Equity Factor indices are constructed by maximizing the index exposure to a multifactor alpha signal while adhering to a set of constraints intended to closely track their broad equity market parent indices. The multifactor signal is composed of the Momentum, Quality, Value, Low volatility and Low size factors.

The STOXX® Global Equity Factor index lost 0.8% in June but increased 14.8% over the second quarter.

Index and volatility levels

Minimum Variance indices

Key points

Most minimum variance strategies outperformed in June.

The STOXX Minimum Variance indices come in two versions. A constrained version has similar exposure to its market-capitalization-weighted benchmark but with lower risk. The unconstrained version, on the other hand, has more freedom to fulfill its minimum variance mandate within the same universe of stocks.
